No. 4:12-cv-00790-SBA

~~PROPOSED~~ STIPULATED
JUDGMENT

Case No. 4:12-cv-00790-SBA

STIPULATED JUDGMENT

Plaintiff Oracle America, Inc. (“Oracle” or “Plaintiff”) and Defendant DLT-Federal Business Systems Corporation a/k/a FBSCGov (“DLT-FBS” or “Defendant”) through their undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate and move this Court for entry of judgment as follows:

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ADJUDGED AND ORDERED that:

1. Oracle and DLT-FBS have entered into a Settlement Agreement to resolve Oracle’s claims against DLT-FBS, and those parties have agreed on the terms of this Stipulated Judgment. This settlement does not resolve, affect, or modify Oracle’s claims against Defendants Service Key LLC and Angela Vines, which were resolved in the Settlement Agreement and Proposed Stipulated Judgment agreed to by those parties. D.I. 225.

2. On Oracle’s claims for copyright infringement (17 U.S.C. § 106), breach of contract, inducing breach of contract, intentional interference with prospective economic relations, unfair competition (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200) and for an accounting, Oracle shall recover from DLT-FBS the following monetary and equitable injunctive relief:

- a. Oracle shall recover from DLT-FBS in the amount of three hundred ninety five thousand US dollars ($395,000 (US)).
- b. DLT-FBS, as well as its officers, employees, and all those acting under its control and/or for its benefit, are hereby permanently enjoined as follows:
 - i. They shall search all computers and computer storage locations in their possession, or to which they have access, for Software and Support Materials (defined below), and destroy and thereafter cease to use, any and all such materials.
 - ii. They shall allow Oracle, upon reasonable suspicion that DLT-FBS is providing support services on Oracle/Sun hardware, to perform an annual audit of their work relating to Oracle/Sun hardware for the next five (5) years. (“Reasonable suspicion” is met by any indication to Oracle that DLT-FBS is supporting, seeking or bidding to support one or more customers on Oracle/Sun hardware or otherwise involved in any manner in support for Oracle

1 products.) They shall maintain complete and detailed records
2 regarding their performance of any and all support services on 3 Oracle/Sun hardware in their customer support record system, shall 4 retain all emails sent to or from their support personnel concerning
5 Oracle/Sun products, and shall disclose such records and emails in 6 any audit conducted by Oracle to enable Oracle to determine
7 whether DLT-FBS has complied with the terms of this Stipulated
8 Judgment.

9 iii. They shall not access or log into any password-protected portion of 10 any Oracle website or any Oracle FTP site, whether on their own
11 behalf or as an agent or a contractor for any third party. Nor shall 12 they engage, retain, contract for or otherwise utilize any third party
13 to access or log into any password-protected portion of any Oracle
14 website or any Oracle FTP site.

15 iv. They shall not use any user credentials, IDs or passwords for any 16 password-protected portion of any Oracle website, or give, receive,
17 sell, or otherwise provide any such access credentials or IDs to any 18 other party. Nor shall they engage, retain, contract for or otherwise
19 utilize any third party to use any user credentials, IDs or passwords
20 for any password-protected portion of any Oracle website, or give,
21 receive, sell, or otherwise provide any such access credentials or 22 IDs to any other party.

23 v. They shall not give, receive, sell or otherwise provide to anyone
24 any Oracle/Sun software and/or support materials, including any 25 updates, bug fixes, patches, media kits or other proprietary
26 software support materials, and including any patches, bug fixes or 27 updates to the Solaris Operating System or for firmware on 28 Oracle/Sun hardware (collectively "Software and Support

Materials”). Nor shall they engage, retain, contract for or otherwise utilize any third party to give, receive, sell or otherwise provide to anyone any Software and Support Materials.

vi. They shall not make any representations to any third party that says or implies that (i) they have access to or can access or obtain Software and Support Materials, (ii) they can or do provide Oracle-branded support, including but not limited to any representation that they provide “Oracle Premier Support” or (iii) they are authorized by Oracle, either directly or indirectly, to resell Oracle support and/or deliver Software and Support Materials in any manner whatsoever.

vii. They shall give a copy of this Stipulated Judgment and written instructions to their officers, employees and agents that they must comply with the restrictions regarding the Software and Support Materials set forth in this Stipulated Judgment, on pain of disciplinary action, up to and including termination, and they shall take appropriate disciplinary action against known violators.

viii. They shall give a copy of the written statement attached as Exhibit A to all current customers that have engaged DLT-FBS to provide support services on any Oracle/Sun hardware, and shall also provide the written statement attached as Exhibit A along with any request, solicitation, advertisement or proposal for any professional services, or any other comparable document that DLT-FBS provides at the outset of an actual or prospective engagement, to any current or prospective clients or customers that have engaged or are considering engaging DLT-FBS to provide future support services on any Oracle/Sun hardware.

4. On Oracle’s claim for unjust enrichment against DLT-FBS, Oracle shall

1 recover nothing by way of this judgment.

2 5. Oracle's claims for violation of the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act (18
3 U.S.C. § 1030(a)(6)(A), violation of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1)(B), and for 4 fraudulent inducement have been resolved by the Parties pursuant to a confidential settlement
5 agreement, and Oracle shall recover nothing further on those claims by way of this judgment.

6 6. As to Oracle's claims for interference with prospective economic
7 advantage and unfair competition, DLT-FBS does not stipulate to each allegation that underlies
8 those claims in Oracle's Second Amended Complaint, although it stipulates to judgment on the 9 claims themselves (on the basis of breach of contract, only, and not on the basis of alleged 10 fraud).

11 7. On DLT-FBS's counterclaims for tying in violation of the Sherman Act,
12 Lanham Act false advertising, defamation and trade libel, tortious interference with contracts and 13 customer relationships and unfair competition, DLT-FBS shall recover nothing.

14 8. Neither Oracle nor DLT-FBS shall recover costs or attorneys' fees from 15 each other. As between Oracle, on the one hand, and DLT-FBS, on the other, each shall bear its 16 own costs and attorneys' fees, except as specified in paragraph 10 below.

17 9. Oracle and DLT-FBS waive any rights to appeal this Stipulated Judgment.

18 10. The Court retains jurisdiction over any action to enforce this Stipulated
19 Judgment. In any such action, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees
20 and costs. Oracle and DLT-FBS request that in in any future action to enforce or resolve any 21 disputes relating to this Stipulated Judgment, the Court refer the matter to Magistrate Judge
22 Cousins for all purposes provided he is available.

23 11. This judgment, in conjunction with the Settlement Agreement and 24 Proposed Stipulated Judgment entered into by Oracle and Service Key LLC and Angela Vines,
25 (D.I. 225) adjudicates all claims at issue in this litigation, and is a final judgment.
